

Organising Communities

A talk at the Adderbury Quaker Meeting house on Sunday 18th June at 3 p.m.

Banbury and Evesham Quakers invite you to the Adderbury Gathering, our annual public talk, at the Adderbury Quaker Meeting House.

Followed by afternoon tea.

All welcome - no charge.

Tom Bulman is a community organiser for Citizens UK – he will be talking about the approach Citizens UK take, and their exciting and engaging campaigns in Milton Keynes.

Come and learn about Living Wage campaign (including special Tea Bags) and “Weaving Trust” amongst other activities across the community.

Citizens UK is an alliance of diverse communities taking action for a thriving, more inclusive and fairer UK.

This Quaker Meeting House is one of the oldest in the country - built in 1675 - and a very special place.

Directions: Adderbury Quaker Meeting House, Horn Hill Rd, West Adderbury, OX17 3EW.

Bus: S4 - there are just a few Sunday buses between Oxford and Banbury.

On foot: if you are interested in walking from Banbury – get in touch for details.
